The "Story"

In the fall of 1942, Greenville Avenue Pizza Company opened its doors. An American milestone emerged as the seventh Pizzeria in the land.

A true visionary, our grandma paddled the Atlantic in her rickety canoe determined to reach the United States and provide Americans with the finest pizza available anywhere. She had a stash of parmesan cheese, a roma tomato and a dream. Inspired by secret ingredients and family recipes spanning generations, grandma's dream of sharing her bounty and opening her very own pizzeria quickly became a reality. You know how the story goes.....

Actually, everyone has a "story", don't they?

We do, but it's not exactly the one you just read. The point is that we believe our dreams have become reality and we're as determined as grandma ever was, or could have been, in providing our patrons with the finest, freshest ingredients available in any pizzeria on Earth. In fact, grandma had nothing to do with this. With a different approach to the traditional pizzeria, we pieced together our restaurant from a hodge-podge of influences. We think you'll definitely agree that we're doing things a little bit different and certainly less traditional.

Our family has spent years in many different facets of the restaurant industry in hopes that one day we could convey our passion and dedication to providing great food to our friends, family and you, our guest.

We are family owned and operated and place significant value on our surrounding neighborhood, friends and patrons. Our goal is to provide a place where "locals" can enjoy a casual dining experience and visit with neighbors. We offer a family friendly environment that is both inviting and comfortable. We want our guests to feel like they've been coming here for years.

Welcome to Greenville Avenue Pizza Company. Enjoy!
